Dear friends,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

After several years without any young people, we now have a family faithfully coming with kids ranging from 13 years down to a toddler. It's been a refreshing change and addition to our ministry. Even though I never know when one of the little ones will scamper up to the pulpit when I'm preaching, it's a blessing to have them. There are some minor doctrinal issues that I'm addressing, but this family has expressed intent to join our work and they appear to be teachable. Please pray for the Lord's guidance in this matter.

We've again resumed door to door outreach in the neighborhood closest to our work. A few of the people I recognized from previous canvases. I always find it odd that for the majority of people, a football game or some other activity has more importance than the care of their own souls. But it also reminds me of the time in my own life when others cared for my soul more than I did. In the time before my conversion, several tried to witness to me, none of them got very far until the Sunday we visited an Independent Baptist Church for American Military in Germany. That's where I got saved the first time I a heard a clear presentation of the gospel.

I mention this for two reasons, first: to Praise the Lord for a true redemption message that faithful servants have shared through the years and second: to remind ourselves not to be weary in well doing, sharing the gospel.

Thank you for your faithfulness in serving the Lord, and your prayers and financial support of this ministry.

In His care
Bro. Rey Dove
